

MY HERO Audio

myhero.com/audio

My Hero Audio

Teachers, students and professional songwriters listen to and share music, poetry and stories about heroes and the concept of heroism. Join a growing global learning community with some words or music about your hero! Register at myhero.com/start to upload original hero-themed songs to MY HERO Audio.

MY HERO and Guitars in the Classroom also sponsor a Hero Song Contest where categories of students and professionals share their hero tunes! Learn more about the song contest at myhero.com/songcontest. Here's some of the criteria to keep in mind for the contest:

EFFECTIVE STORYTELLING

Highlighting a HERO
Does the song tell the story of a real hero? Does it foster planet conscious ideas and action?

POETIC LYRICS

Using language to creatively share a concept of idea celebrating heroism.
Do the words inspire others with their beauty, clarity, creativity and accuracy?

MELODIC CONTENT

Do you like the tune? Is it memorable?

PLAYABILITY

Can teachers, students and others successfully play and accompany the song with guitar or ukulele?

SINGABILITY

Is the song musically accessible and engaging? Can children successfully learn and sing it well?)

MEMORABLE QUALITIES

Can students easily memorize the song and sing it by heart?

Categories of Winning Songs: Add your song:

Best Classroom/Group Song
Best Solo Song by a Student
Best Solo Song by a Teacher
Best Lyricist/Songwriter
Best Professional Song
Special prizes will be awarded..

Add your song to MY HERO AUDIO here:

myhero.com/START.

Include a few words about the inspiration for the music and your name, your school and all participants.

All winning songs will also be shared with students around the world online on MY HERO & Guitars in the Classroom.

For More Information:

myhero@myheroproject.com

myhero.com/donate

myhero.com

